Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

There was great excitement yesterday on the Stock Exchange, and the current of speculation was changed entirely in favor of the bulls, first having advanced from 30¢ at the opening, to 40¢ late in the afternoon. The cause of this sudden turn was a mystery to the street. It was understood that several parties in the bear interest called upon Vanderbilt and that two hours were closeted in bulls, and that two hours before they left. Vanderbilt was observed to be somewhat depressed. The rumor was current that several parties in the bear interest called upon Vanderbilt and that two hours were closeted in bulls, and that two hours before they left
